Breaking News!

IT'S A BANNER WEEK FOR THE MUSEUM OF MATHEMATICS!

A NEW HOME!

MoMath has a new home! A lease for space on the north end of Madison Square Park was signed on April 11, 2011. Construction will commence immediately, and the Museum plans to open its doors in Fall 2012. Attention teachers: field trip reservations will be taken beginning this fall.

A GRANT FROM GOOGLE!

The Museum of Mathematics is thrilled to have been selected by Google as the recipient of a $2 million grant. Michael T. Jones, chief technology advocate at Google, stated, "By transforming the curious learners of today into the innovators of tomorrow, museums perpetuate both creativity and accomplishment. That's why I am thrilled that Google is supporting beloved science museums including the Museum of Mathematics."

THE MIDWAY RETURNS!

The Math Midway is coming home! MoMath is pleased to announce that its ever-popular Math Midway exhibition has been booked by Liberty Science Center for Fall 2011. From October 2011 to January 2012, come enjoy our interactive math learning experiences, including square-wheeled tricycles, laser-based geometry exploration, and human-sized geometric puzzles.

MATH MIDWAY 2 GO!

Thanks to the generous support of the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, a grant of over $400,000 will be used to equip science festivals around the nation with portable, interactive, and hands-on mathematical activities. A few visitor favorites from the Math Midway will reappear in streamlined form to create the core of this exciting new program.
